CHARLESTON MISHAPS AT

RUNNING OF YESTERDAY'S RACES ATTENDED BY SEVERAL AGGRAVATING FEATURES.

Roebuck Snaps Bone in Leg When in Commanding Pesition, and Loses His Life-Auto Run, Pliant and Jack Denman Have Bad Racing Luck.

Charleston, S. C., March 14.—Outsiders made a clean sweep of the card at Palmetto Park this afternoon, all the choices going down to defeat. In several cases their backers had the aggravation of knowing that interference or a mishap brought about their failures. The most striking incident of this sort came with the running of the third race, in which Roebuck was the favorite. It appeared that he would certainly win until the last furlong, when one of the smaller bones in his left leg snapped above the ankle. Not alone did it cost the horse the purse but he also lost his life, for he was led from the track and a bullet terminated his misery. Catesby Woodford's Auto Run, after getting into the lead a sixteenth from the finish in the opening dash, stepped into a hole and stumbled badly. The mishap enabled Nick Akin, which had been displaced from the lead to regain it and he lasted to win by a head. Two others that were clearly best of their fields, but lost through interference were Pliant and Jack Denman. Both of these were almost thrown soon after the siart and lost many lengths thereby. Both landed in third place. In Pliant's case a claim of foul was lodged, but it was not allowed.

After Pardner won the second race he was bid up by Sam Louis, who secured the colt for $800. Pardner was taken from S. C. Hildreth last summer by the selling race process by Lon Johnson, Mr. Louis also boosted Peter Pender after he won, but the horse was protected and bought in by his owner for $605, which was $305 in advance of his entered price. In the closing event W. A. Burttschell, who trains for Sam Louis, bid up Cuttyhnuk $300 over his entered price, but trainer Pangle retained the horse on his bid of $605.

Siewayd E. C. Smith this afternoon made it known that the report that had gained circulation that jockey Goldstein had been barred from riding here was erroneous. The boy had been on a hunting trip, which accounted for his three weeks' absence from the course. Goldstein was at the track today and will immediately get hims ger of horses being given trials, although nothing of the sensational order was recorded. Some of the lest moves were:

HUNT CLUB RACING RULES AMENDED.

HUNT CLUB RACING RULES AMENDED.

New York, March 14.—An evidence of the steadily growing interest in the hunt race meetings was given at the last meeting of the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association when four new members were elected and provisions were made for the admittance of others. Several important changes were made in the rules of racing and licenses were issued to professional and gentlemen riders.

and licenses were issued to professional and gentlemen riders.

The new members elected were I. M. Parr, Joseph W. Burden, J. E. Davis and H. W. Warner. It was Mr. Davis who last senson purchased a number of horses for racing at the amateur meetings, including Firestone, winner of the Double Event of 1997. II. W. Warner's colors have long been familiar about the bunt tracks, and his mare Faultless was a particularly good performer last season, while Nosegay was a frequent winner for him.

Silns Veitch, one of the most successful of crosscountry trainers and at one time a foremost rider between the flags, was granted a license to train, and Thomas Wilson's application for a trainer's license was acted favorably upon. Wilson also received a jockey license. The only other professional rider to be granted a license was James Lynch.

John L. Coyle's application for a trainer's license was denied, and the application of F. G. Wenkhouse was referred to Henry J. Morris for action. Certificates were furnished the following gentlemen riders, most of whom are well known to the hunting field: Bayard Tuckerman, Jr.; C. L. Appleton, August Belmont, Jr.; Joseph McKee Madden, J. Edward Madden, Philip Stevenson, B. B. Lewis, E. C. Cowdin, II.; Sidney Josephthal, Rufus C. Finch, Alfred Bowlen, J. S. Casey, Lieut, C. K. Rockwell, F. B. Hussey, W. H. Wildey, Charles K. Harrison, Jr., and G. B. Fenwick.

New York, March 14.—Very much in the same spirit which actuated that sailor when he saluted his superior officer and sailor. "Sir, I have the honor the same," "It was all the sailor of the same, "Sir," are a stabiling." The American turfonce more faces a blank year, according to the best evidence. After fluctuations of hopes and fears all winter, it now looks, as if there will be only a few days of amateur racing in this state, the same as last year. Whisper Belle, br. f, 2, by Ellisdale—Worst,
The two-year-olds are of unusual size and substance. The pick off the lot is Amhurst, which last fall was highly tried, showing a quarter in 23½ seconds with 128 pounds up. The best of the fillies is Nelly Agnes, which showed a quarter in 23½ seconds with 120 pounds up. Both these trials were at Mr. Ryan's hone farm. W. M. Carter is the trainer and Joe McCahey will do the riding for to date nine toals at the stud farm. Among the yearlings are some by Sea King, an imported son of Persimmon, which Mr. Ryan bought in England two years ago.

I met yesterday Dr. Heard, a well-known veterinary surgeon, who, for many years, served the municipality in passing upon the soundness of horses for fire engine and mounted police use. He is a veteran, but in fine bodily condition. He was long an intimate friend of Newton Bennington, the man who really gave Frankie O'Neill his opportunity by engaging him to ride some years ago, when Bennington was racing horses bred by James B. Haggin, and later on secured the running qualities of August Beimont's Beldame as a three-year-old, when her owner temporarily withdrew his name from turf matters. It was the late William Eastin, by the way, who suggested to Mr. Belmont that it would be a capital plan to let Mr. Bennington have Beldame. Bennington was at that time carrying all before him. His stake winnings were large, and Burlew, his trainer, and O'Neill, his jockey, were at the top of the heap. Beldame won a pile of money for Bennington, but the following year she reverted to Mr. Belmont, though she was still trained by Burlew and ridden by O'Neill.

For her breeder and owner Beldame won the Suburban Handicap. Mr. Belmont was of course delighted, but that he had anticipated his mare's victory was shown by the fact that he presented to O'Neill after the race a check for $2,000. Turning to W. H. Rowe, well known as an expert in blood lines in mating horses with mares, Mr. Belmont said: "I bow to the verdict of the majority and will breed Beldame to Meddier." There had been an international breeding competition and Mr. Rowe had been notified that a majority of the best judges in the breeding world had decided that of all the then famous stallions in America, Meddler was best suited to mate with Beldame.

Singular to state, the various products of this and other matings, have not yet proved to be race horses, though there is a three-year-old at Belmont Park, called Be two years old, but which was a crack at three.

Well, returning to Dr. Heard and Mr. Bennington.

I asked after the health of the latter. It is well known that he has been in a health resort for some years. Dr. Heard said: "He appears to be in excellent mental and physical condition. He weighs 170 pounds (only a few years ago he did not weigh much more than 120 pounds). I intend to have him examined by a corps of experts and if they report favorably he will soon be at liberty to resume his business—real estate development. I am sorry to say that Mrs. Bennington, his wife, is very ill in Chicago."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, who have

Chicago."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, who have been abroad since January 10, are due here on Saturday. In view of the dark outlook for racing in New York state, the next thing in order is for Mr. Whitney to ship to England about thirty two-year-olds now at Brookdale.

I noticed a head line in the Cincinnati Enquirer of Sunday which made me smile. It read "Ban on Betting Has Not Injured Trotting Horse." I wonder if the man who wrote that heading knows that two years ago there were 120 trotting meetings in New York State, and this year there will be none. Perhaps he can explain this.

of the younger Maddens have long been athletes of merit.

An important change was made in the rules when it was agreed that all masters of recognized hunts were eligible to bonorary membership without the payment of dues in the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association.

Another important rule was made when the bylaws were amended whereby a steward may appoint a deputy to represent him in his absence abroad. Some of the stewards have frequently been in France when matters needed attention and it has sometimes been impossible to secure a quorum. This amendment clears up that difficulty.

A rule of racing that was changed has to do with foul riding. As amended the rule now provides that "A horse shall be disqualified if his rider, by foul riding, jeopardizes the chances of success of any other horse in a race. A horse crossing another so as to actually impede him is disqualified, unless the impeded horse was partly in fault or the crossing was wholly caused by the fault of some other horse or rider. In all cases of rough riding or unfair tactics the stewards have power of fining or suspending a rider until the expiration of the meeting, or should they consider such punishment insufficient, until the case can be heard and decided by the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association."

A. Henry Higginson, H. S. Page and Joseph E.

A. Henry Higginson, H. S. Page and Joseph E. Widener were re-appointed members of the Hunt Committee for the year 1912.

J. J. HYLAND GOES TO GERMANY.

New York, March 14.—John J. Hyland, of Sheeps-head Bay, has been engaged at a salary of $15,000, for the jockey.

to frain the great racing stable of Baron Oppenheim, Germany's most prominent breeder and turfman, to replace James McCornick, who is dangerously ill in Berlin. McCormick has been training for Baron Oppenheim for the last three years, and for that nobleman and other turfmen he has won more than $500,000 in that period, developing many of the best horses in Germany.

Hyland is one of America's most noted horsemen, having trained three winners of the Futurity, His Highness, The Butterflies and Requital, besides two winners of the Suburban, Ramapo and Henry of Navarre; two winners of the Withers, Dr. Rice and Octagon; three winners of the Benont, Henry of Navarre, Hastings and Masterman; two winners of the Brooklyn Derby, Keenan and Octagon, and the winners of scores of other valuable stakes.

Originally a steeplechase rider, his experience having begun in Canada, Hyland as trainer for the late James Galway, Gideon & Daly and August Belmont, became the most successful of all American trainers. He left Mr. Belmont's employment in 1963, when that gentleman announced his temporary retirement from racing. Mr. Hyland will leave for Germany within the next few days.

SHILLING TO GO ABROAD AFTER ALL.

New York, March 14.—Although jockey Shilling's contract with Charles Kohler was terminated a short time ago, it is to be renewed, and the jockey will go to France to join the stable, which was shipped last Sunday. Mr. Kohler decided to dispense with Shilling's services because there is so little for a flat rider to do on the French courses. He was loath to lose such a capable rider, however, and finally made arrangements whereby August Belmont is to share in the services of Shilling. Between them they hope to find sufficient employment for the jockey,

COMMISSION MEETS SOON

EXACT DATE OF IMPORTANT KENTUCKY SESSION NOT DETERMINED.

Commissioner Young Ridicules Report That Politics Will Be Allowed to Enter Into Government of Racing in Blue Grass State.

Lexington, Ky., March 14.—There will be no meeting of the Kentucky State Racing Commission here tomorrow and Secretary G. P. Johnston says he is not advised as to the date for the next meeting. "Col. E. F. Clay, chairman of the commission, is still in Florida, I am told and I have had no message from him lately." said Secretary Johnston. "I understand that Colonel Clay will return to Kentucky shortly and I presume a meeting will be held soon after his arrival. Just how the impression got abroad that there would be a meeting of the commission on Friday, I am not aware, but I presume it came through a statement made some time ago that, because of the absence of Chairman Clay, there would be no meeting until his return, which would be about the middle of March."

Colonel Milton Young, vice-cairman of the commission, said he had understood Colonel Clay would return to his home near Parls within the next two or three days and it is his opinion that the meeting may be held the latter part of the coming week, certainly before April 1. Colonel Young smiled at reference to an item sent from Frankfort to the effect that politics is to enter into the naming of race track officials. "The man who wrote that stuff." he said, "is evidently out of time with the spirit of the commission, knows nothing, virtually, of its deliberations and is unacquainted with the views of members of the commission. We have never played politics in our government of the turf and there is no grounds for the statement or surmise that we ever will. By taking upon ourselves the appointment of the presiding judge, handicapper, starter and veterinarian, we are moving solely for the betterment of racing. If we make those appointments, we will select men we believe to be best qualified for positions, irrespective of party affiliations, religion, lodges or anything else other than a knowledge of racing and we will not ask or permit any politicians to select or suggest the men to be appointed. It is our aim and purpose to stay as far away as possible from

ANOTHER WINDY DAY AT JUAREZ.

Meddling Hannah Again in Winning Form-Lient. Sawyer Only Successful Favorite.

El Paso, Tex., March 14.—The skies were clear today, but a high wind blew all day. This did not have any tendency to keep the crowd away from the Juarez track, however. Only one favorite was lucky enough to score. That distinction fell to Lieut. Sawyer from the stable of Keene Bros. The second race, at a mile, brought together a lot that has been meeting one another quite frequently. Thistle Rose went into the lead, and meeting with no mishaps, lusted to win. Sam Barber was the victim of a sluggish ride from the hands of jockey C. H. Miller, who had his mount under strong restraint and got into several pockets.

Meddling Hannah finally scored after many unsuccessful attempts. She got away well in her stride and lasted to beat Metropolitan, the favorite, which made a gallant effort but at no time could he get within less than a length of the winner.

Jockey Gross, on Gilbert Rose, beat starter Cassidy's gate, which is an unusual occurrence here, He gained a decided advantage for his mount, but determined rush made by Hidden Hand. Gus Hartridge, ridden by little Hill, and backed into favoritism at post time, broke poorly and had scant chance.

The death of Charles J. Murray, a well-known horseman, occurred at the home of his brother-in-law, Thos. Craven, at Cayuga, Ont., last Monday. He was thirty-four years old and had a special aptitude with cross-country horses. Judge Cronin was the only jumper he owned at the time of his death, The Associated Press sends out a statement from Lexington to the effect that the Kentucky State Racing Commission is likely to adopt, at its pending meeting, the proposed amendment to the rules providing for the appointment of a presiding judge for the Kentucky tracks and that in the event of such action, Maj. F. A. Daingerfield, at present a member of the commission, will receive the appointment, which would necessitate his resignation from the commission.

NEW STAR also closed a gap and held on resolutely in the closing drive. MONTAGNIE showed the most early speed and set the pace to the stretch, but tiged. ROEBUCK appeared to be winning easily when he broke down, DUKE OF BRIDGEWATER closed a gap in the last quarter. JOE ROSE and GOLCONDA showed speed, but quit.
